

Book-sale - ASD & related conditions, some more oriented to professionals, others to autistic readers, and / or families / support persons:

As a result of the Christchurch earthquakes and downsizing my autism practice into one central but smaller site, I have the following books, surplus to requirement, for sale at 10 to 50% purchase price (according to condition). Most are in new, near-new or very good condition.

Titles are arranged alphabetically by author. A few more titles to be added later.

For description of the books or a glance inside at their content, I suggest you look them up on an internet bookstore such as www.amazon.com

Prices given below do not include postage (postage will depend on size and quantity of books ordered, and will be quoted promptly once you place your request). Prices in blue are books also listed by me on Fishpond as 'Sell yours' so can be withdrawn from Fishpond listing if you buy direct from me (The list below does not include books listed on Fishpond 'Smart-Sell' as those can be bought only direct from Fishpond - but are books of less relevance)

For enquiries or to purchase: Please email me at arbak@clear.net.nz with details of the title(s) wanted and your location – then I'll respond with postage-added price, and how to pay.

SELL YOURS.
